About Army Aviation Magazine

For over 70 years since 1953, ARMY AVIATION Magazine has been the voice of the total Army Aviation Community, Uniformed, DAC, Industry, Civilian and Retired.

Published 10x per year it reaches over 70% of all active duty commissioned officers in the Aviation Branch, all members of the Congressional Army Aviation Caucus, all members of the House and Senate Appropriations Department of Defense sub-committees, House and Senate Armed Services Committees, all U.S. Army General Officers regardless of Branch, Army Aviation Branch leadership to include Acquisition and Sustainment, all General Officers SES, Civilian Aides to the Secretary of the Army (CASA) and key Foreign Military Sales leaders as well as more than 19,000 AAAA members each month.

The articles are written by subject matter experts from the Army and keep the community informed on matters of urgency to our Soldiers in uniform.

The digital “Flip Book” edition of the magazine covers topics that are not found in the print magazine and new content is refreshed daily.

As the official publication of AAAA, the magazine helps provide the major elements of Networking, Recognition, Voice, and Support to achieve AAAA's mission “Supporting the U.S. Army Aviation Soldier and Family.”
